Next Generation Ethics: Where Do We Stand

April 26th, 2019, 8am – 5pm, Town and Gown Ballroom, USC

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Time</th>
<th>Event</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>8:00am</td>
<td>Breakfast (Ballroom) – Registration</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>8:45 am</td>
<td>Welcome and Introduction by Ali Abbas, Professor of Industrial and Systems Engineering and Public Policy, Director, Neely Center</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
| 9:00 am-10:30am | Panel 1: USC Vice Presidents and Deans discuss important ethical issues we face today or will face in the near future. They also reflect on some ethical decisions they had to make.
Moderator: Ali Abbas, Director, Neely Center
(1) Michael S. Blanton, VP of Professionalism and Ethics
(2) Stacy R. Giwa, Vice President, Ethics and Compliance and Chief Compliance Officer
(3) Jack Knott, Dean of the Sol Price School of Public Policy
(4) Laura Mosqueda, Dean of the Keck School of Medicine
(5) Yannis Yortsos, Dean of the Viterbi School of Engineering |
| 10:30am-10:45am | AM Break                                                              |
| 10:45am-11:15 am | Invited Speaker: Captain Samantha Harvey, A-10C Instructor Pilot, 354 Fighter Squadron, discusses an ethical dilemma she faced in Iraq. Introduced by Ali Abbas. |
| 11:15am-12:30 pm | Panel 2: This multidisciplinary panel discusses numerous ethical situations facing society and the role of public policy.
Moderator: Frank Zerunyan, Professor of Practice of Governance, Price School of Public Policy
(1) Michael Taylor, Executive Director, Media Institute for Social Change
(2) Sharon Lloyd, Professor of Philosophy, Law, and Political Science
(3) Randy Hill, Executive Director, Institute for Creative Technology
(4) Kenneth Fletcher, Former Chief Risk Officer, Transportation Security Administration |
| 12:30pm-1:30 pm | Lunch Break- Neely Center Student Competition Finalists
Presented by Katharine Harrington, Vice President of Admissions and Planning and Ali Abbas, Director, Neely Center |
| 1:30pm-2:00 pm | Invited Speaker: Jill Stanley, Former prosecutor and founder of the celebrity legal news website, Proof with Jill Stanley, discusses celebrities, ethics, and the law. Introduced by Elizabeth Fife, Associate Professor of Technical Communication Practice, Engineering Writing Program, Viterbi School of Engineering. |
| 2:00pm-3:15 pm | Panel 3: This panel discusses business ethics and corporate responsibility in the modern era.
Moderator: Marion Philadelphia, Chair, Department of Business Communication, Marshall School of Business.
(1) Heather Holt, Executive Director of the Los Angeles City Ethics Commission
(2) Jeff De Maio, Vice President & Senior Account Manager
(3) Sue Collins, Corporate Attorney
(4) Kirk Hanson, Former Executive Director of the Markkula Center for Applied Ethics. |
| 3:15pm-3:30pm | PM Break                                                              |
| 3:30pm-4:45pm | Panel 4: This panel focuses on ethical issues and trends regarding healthcare and bioethics.
Moderator: Josh Hyatt, Executive Director, Integrated Risk Management, Keck School of Medicine
(1) David Sine, Chief Risk Officer at the Veterans Health Administration
(2) Evan DeRenzo, Assist. Director Center for Ethics, Washington Hospital Center, Editor Journal of Hospital Ethics
(3) Fr. Luke Dysinger, Professor of Church History and Moral Theology and formerly Bioethics, St. John’s Seminary |